

Flitwick and Ampthill Tennis Club

Clubmark Documentation

Assistant Coach Role Description

The assistant coach is an important member of the coaching team and ensures that players being coached are at the appropriate ratios for coaches to players. The assistant coach deliver quality coaching and provide enthusiasm so players being coached improve their game and have fun in the process.

What makes a good Assistant Coach?

- Reliable
- A good communicator
- Willing to take responsibility for tasks needed for the successful coaching at the club
- Ensure all delegated tasks are actioned
- Good tennis playing skills which he/she can demonstrate to the players
- Ability to work well in a team

Roles and Responsibilities

- Act as a point of contact for members and interact on a social and coaching level
- Encourage members to play tennis and improve their game
- Increase membership numbers by enhancing the place to play's credibility
- Actively source new members and help promote the market the place to play
- Assist in planning/organising internal/open tournaments and tennis events for all members
- Deliver coaching to players as an integral part of the coaching programme
- Work at developing their own game to improve as a player and a coach
- Work towards coaching qualifications with the LTA