2.8 Safeguarding & Protection in Tennis - LTA

This course is essential for all tennis people who come into contact with children, young people and/or adults at risk. To create a safe and inclusive game, it is important that all tennis people and venues know how to safeguard and protect children, young people, adults at risk and themselves in tennis.

This course will introduce the concept of the four R's:

- Recognise – the signs and indicators of abuse and neglect
- Respond – to disclosures and allegations of abuse and neglect
- Refer – to the Club Welfare Officer and / or the LTA Safeguarding Team
- Record – the incident on the Safeguarding Concern Form

Specifically this course will enable you to:

- State the definition of a child and adult at risk
- Identify the signs and indicators of abuse and neglect in children and adults at risk in tennis
- Practise dealing with a disclosure
- State best practice on how to gain consent from children and adults at risk
- State how to respond to unsafe working practices and safeguarding concerns
- Identify the Safeguarding Concern Form and how to complete the relevant sections
